LOCAL BREVITIES.

Oceanic Lodge, No. 371, F. & A. M., meets this evening for the transaction of business and work in the third degree.

The funeral of Alfred Gooding Field, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Field of Waikiki, who died on Saturday, was held yesterday.

Sam Papaula, a bricklayer, who has been imbibing rather freely of late, was arrested by the police yesterday, his actions leading to the belief that his mind had become unbalanced.

The uptown office of the Sanitary Steam Laundry will move tomorrow from the Woman's Exchange to the Messenger Service just opposite. Office open for the receipt and delivery of laundry day and night, including Sundays.

Miss Margaret Wilson, who arrived all the way from Glasgow, Scotland, in the Aorangi from Vancouver on Saturday morning, was married on the evening of the same day, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Black, to Carl Dittler Orstad, formerly of Glasgow and for some time past a resident of Honolulu.

In the window of the Tropic Fruit Co., opposite the Advertiser office, is shown a freak of nature in pineapple growth. Geo. Roentz has labeled it "Crowned Pineapple Queen," from its resemblance to a diadem. It is oval in contour with a breadth equal to the thickness of three normal pines, and the spines form a crescent-shaped comb on the top.

Fukuda, a Kakaako Jap, who was enjoying an after luncheon stroll yesterday, was considerably chagrined to receive a slice of bread, buttered side on, in the face when passing one of the Magoon block cafes. Going in for an explanation he received not the soft answer to turn away his wrath and proceeded to mix it up with Halemano. Both were escorted to the police station and booked for the affray.

Manuel Marques, who was killed by falling off the Harrison building Saturday, had a large funeral yesterday. Following the band playing the dead march in Saul and other solemn airs many women and girls walked from the Catholic cathedral to the cemetery. Then came a large turnout of the Portuguese Benevolent Society with banner, preceding the priest and the hearse, a long row of carriages bringing up the rear.

A rather mysterious affair occurred at No. 2 Camp, near the corner of Vineyard and Liliha streets, at an early hour yesterday morning in which Kuakini, a native workman, had the fingers of his right hand blown off with dynamite. Kuakini is an inmate of one of the houses there, the other inmates of which heard an explosion on the lanai at about two o'clock in the morning, coming out to find him stunned and bleeding, with his hand shattered. He was taken to the hospital for treatment. The wounded man had been drinking and was unable to give any reason why he should have had the high explosive in his hand nor the reason for its going off.

SAN FRANCISCO INSURANCE.

Editor Advertiser: Will you kindly inform me, through the columns of the Advertiser, whether the insurance companies have ever paid any of the insurance money to the San Francisco sufferers? Thanking you in advance.

W. REID.

Honolulu, July 24, 1906.

[Some companies have paid their losses. Others are paying as fast as adjustments can be made. A certain number have gone broke. Others refuse to pay, or to pay but 75 per cent., on the strength of the clause in the policy releasing the insurers from liability for destruction of insured property caused directly or indirectly by earthquake.—Ed. Advertiser.]

Suffered Terribly from Indigestion.
Cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"It is with pleasure that I can testify to the great benefit I derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I suffered terribly from indigestion, and tried several medicines without avail. I was then persuaded to take and after using a few bottles my indigestion was cured, my appetite came back and I was strong and hearty. This is some years since, and my old complaint has not returned, but I always keep a bottle in the house, and when I feel at all out of sorts a few doses put me right again in quick order."—W. SINKINSON, Mt. Torrens, S. A.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "AYER'S."
